Children attending the Butterfly or Owls class will need to have space for bedding and diapers (if needed).

Bedding for Butterfly or Owls class consists of a fitted crib sheet and small blanket.

Bentgo boxes work the best for preschool. You can get the Bentgo brand or the knock off at Target or Walmart.

The Bentgo box goes inside a lunch box with an ice pack.

Children attending the Owls class or any preschool class, will need to provide silverware (when needed) for their lunch.

Each child needs to bring 2 water bottles that are no larger than 12oz. The Thermos FUNtainer water bottle from Target or Walmart work best. The Butterfly class might use an alternate.
